On behalf of everyone at Creighton Prep and the BASH 2023 Executive Committee, thank you for participating in BASH 2023!

From Monday, April 17 to Saturday, April 22, please bid and buy often via your computer or smartphone at CreightonPrep.org/BASH. As you know, the proceeds of BASH are vital to making a transformative Prep experience accessible to our students and their families.

Looking around Omaha, it's clear that Prep has left a profound mark on our city. Many of Omaha's leaders proudly claim Prep not only as their alma mater but as a decisive influence in shaping them into leaders and Men for Others.

That work continues here at Prep in exciting ways. This year, a large freshman class joined other members of the Creighton Prep brotherhood to learn, pray, and grow in our beautiful campus at 7400 Western Ave. Our gorgeous Lannon Learning Commons was the hub for intensive study, and care for our students' learning and mental health needs while the newly expanded ToTomorrow Labs were filled at every moment of the day.

In the current academic year, retreats, daily prayer and liturgies continued to build the faith of our students. In recognition of their scholarly achievements, five were selected as National Merit Scholarship Finalists and three as Commended Students. Academic teams excelled this year: the mock trial team won state for the sixth time in seven years, our sophomore robotics team won a Colorado state title in the FIRST Tech Challenge, and the Science Bowl team won a regional championship.

With the leadership of Prep core team members, 1,200 families received food through Operation Others at Christmas. The orientation toward faith formation and service also was reflected strongly in the freshmen during Freshman Retreat with their senior big brothers, in others as part of a class retreat and in those taking theology courses where helping the community beyond Prep's walls is a key part of the curriculum.

Our visual arts program was again recognized for its excellence, winning 95 regional Scholastic Art and Writing awards. Senior Cameron Johnson won a rare national medal, joining the ranks of luminaries like Stephen King, Joyce Carol Oates and Andy Warhol as winners of this prestigious award. In March, our choir joined an ensemble at Carnegie Hall and put on a magnificent show. In all, five singers and bandsmen were recognized with all-state distinctions.

Our fall and winter athletic teams completed their regular seasons and achieved at a high level. This included the football team making the state semifinals and the swimming and diving team taking a state title with an impressive point total. Early efforts from our spring sports promise a lot of excitement on the fields and on the track in these coming weeks, led by a new 200m state record by senior Jack Gillogly.

Thank you again for participating in BASH 2023, and please mark Saturday, April 20, 2024 for next year's event in the Heider Center!

Sincerely,

Fr. Matt Spotts SJ
